ANSWERED ON:25.04.2013
AMENITIES AT DELHI BASED STATIONS
Saroj Shri Tufani

Will the Minister of RAILWAYS be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is a lack of passenger amenities at Sarai Rohilla station, Old Delhi Station and Hazrat Nizammuddin stations in Delhi;

(b) if so, the reasons for delay in overcoming the inconveniences caused to passengers and to develop those stations as model stations;

(c) whether other stations besides New Delhi railway station have not been kept in the list of priority stations; and

(d) if not, the reasons for negligence in overcoming mismanagement at ticket counters of Old Delhi Station, Hazrat Nizammuddin and Sarai Rohilla stations?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS (SHRI ADHIR RANJAN CHOWDHURY)

(a) & (b): No, Madam. All minimum essential passenger amenities, as per norms, have already been provided at Sarai Rohilla, Old Delhi and Hazrat Nizammuddin railway stations. These stations have already been developed under 'Model' Station Scheme except provision of Pay & Use Toilet at Delhi Sarai Rohilla station.

(c): Due priority is given to every stations for the purpose of provision of amenities as per norms.

(d): At present, 24 ticket counters at Delhi Junction, 15 at Nizamuddin and 10 at Delhi Sarai Rohilla stations are considered adequate.
